

Do Wells residents have hatred for Bible and Christ?

Daily Sentinel Nacogdoches Posted: Thursday, April 17, 2014 11:30 pm

I would like to start this letter with the statement that I do not know any of the residents of Wells, nor do I know or have any affiliation with the people at the "Church of Wells." Here are the questions that I have for the people of Wells.

Do other churches in the town of Wells not preach from the Bible? Have they never read in the Bible about John the Baptist, who came out of the wilderness preaching "the kingdom of heaven is at hand"? What about the Apostle Paul preaching in the towns and streets? Would the people of Wells attack him for preaching and teaching the message of Christ outside the four walls of a building? Stephen was stoned to death by a crowd that did not like what he was preaching, which was to repent from their wicked ways and accept Christ as their savior. This group in Wells sounds a lot like this crowd that killed Stephen.

What about Jesus himself, out in the streets and villages, preaching and teaching the way of salvation, and that there is a heaven to gain and a hell to shun. Would they have been a part of the very crowd that yelled "crucify him?"

We as a nation seem to be turning our back on God and the Bible. The Bible states in I Corinthians 1:18 "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness, but unto us which are saved it is the power of God." Residents of Wells, it does not seem like your problem and hatred is for the "Church of Wells," but your problem and hatred is for the Bible and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Darrell Flanagan